Dear Hilda

Just a note to say how very sad I was to hear about Rusty's death last week. It was a great pleasure, and an honour, to be able to meet you both at Rhodes House at the dinner for Jakes Gerwel after his Bram Fischer Memorial lecture. I was particularly pleased to be able to sit opposite, or nearly opposite, both you and Rusty, and to be able to exchange some conversation with you. So the news of Rusty's death so soon after a happy occasion of reflection and affirmation came very sadly. I hope that your enormous loss and the terrible period of bereavement and adjustment that must follow will not hamper all the writing plans that you mentioned. Please accept my warmest thoughts and wishes to you.

Yours sincerely
